4-H Tidelands Nature Center 'Art Inspired by Nature' Sale & Silent Auction

Held on Jekyll Island @ the Morgan Center

(Located in the Jekyll Historic District)

Sunday February 18, 2018 10:00am-4:00pm

Local artists display their artwork for sale to benefit Tidelands Nature Center.

Mark your calendars for the 16th annual 4-H Tidelands Nature Center 'Art Inspired by Nature' Sale, Sunday February 18th, 2018. The annual event features an eclectic array of artwork created by talented artists from our coastal Georgia area, displaying their coastal-themed art for sale. Look for your favorites from Jekyll, St. Simon's, Brunswick, Camden, and McIntosh displaying paintings, pottery, hand-made jewelry, metal sculptures, photographs, books, bake goods, hand-made soaps, and more!

Be sure to stop in and find your favorite treasures created by all of our talented local artists! And while you are browsing, be sure to check out our silent auction area, featuring items donated by some of our artists as well as community organizations. Silent auction items include jewelry, pottery, books, photographs, hotel accommodations, restaurant gift certificates, dolphin tours, kayak tours, and more!!

We still have room for a few more exhibitors!!! Call Tidelands @ 912-635-5032 for information about exhibiting your art work or making a donation!
